Imagine that you are a reporter. You hear that a man has been lost in mysterious circumstances while walking in the countryside. You arrive early the next morning to investigate the disappearance and to interview people who may be able to add information and comments to your news report.

Write your news report for your newspaper.

In your news report you should:

- explain what is known about the situation and events leading up to Hilyer being reported missing.
- suggest why it might have been dangerous for a visitor to walk alone in that area.
- explore some theories people you interviewed might have about what happened to Hilyer.

Base your news report on what you have read in Passage A. Address all three bullet points. Be careful to use your own words.

Begin your news report with this headline: Famous historian goes missing
