2 Imagine that you are the narrator of Passage A. It is the morning after the events described in the passage and you are writing a journal entry. In your journal entry you describe the events of the day before.

Write your journal entry.

In your journal entry you should:

• describe how you first discovered the house and your impressions of it
• describe your thoughts and feelings while you were standing in the rain
• give an account of what happened after you climbed through the open window.

Base your journal entry on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your journal entry, ‘I am still trying to understand exactly what happened yesterday...’

Write about 200 to 300 words.
