CAMBRIDGE International Examinations [Turn over
Question 1

You are the jumpmaster delivering a talk to a new group of skydiving students to prepare them for their first jump.

Write the words of your talk.

In your talk you should explain:

• what the students will do on their first jump and why
• the experience of fear and how to overcome it
• the rewards of skydiving and why they will want to repeat the experience.

Base your talk on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your talk: ‘Welcome everyone. Now listen carefully…’

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.
Question 2

Re-read the descriptions of:

(a) what the narrator sees as the woman makes her first jump in paragraph 3, beginning ‘On that first jump …’;

(b) the narrator’s first experience of parachuting in paragraph 5, beginning ‘Nevertheless, I didn’t go into …’.

Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context.

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.
Question 3

Answer the questions in the order set.

(a) Notes

What does Vic tell us about the job of a stunt performer in the past and how does he think it has changed in the present, according to Passage B?

Write your answer using short notes. Write one point per line.

You do not need to use your own words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer.

What Vic tells us about the job of a stunt performer in the past and how he thinks it has changed in the present:

1...........................................................................................................................................
2...........................................................................................................................................
3...........................................................................................................................................
4...........................................................................................................................................
5...........................................................................................................................................

13...........................................................................................................................................
14...........................................................................................................................................
15...........................................................................................................................................

[15]
(b) Now use your notes from Question 3(a) to write a summary of what Vic tells us about the job of a stunt performer in the past and how he thinks it has changed in the present, according to Passage B.

You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible.

Your summary should include all 15 of your points in Question 3(a) and must be 200 to 250 words.

Up to 5 marks are available for the quality of your writing.
