This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners’ meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2016 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.
Note 1: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates’ scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Note 2: Words underlined in the answers to the questions are required for the full mark(s) to be awarded.

1 This question tests Reading Objectives R1–R4 (20 marks):

R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings
R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes
R3 analyse, evaluate and develop facts, ideas and opinions
R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects

Question 2

This question tests reading assessment objectives R1–R3 (10 marks):

R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meaning
R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitude
R3 analyse, evaluate and develop facts, ideas and opinions

and writing assessment objectives W1–W4 (5 marks):

W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagine
W2 sequence facts, ideas and opinion
W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary
W4 use register appropriate to audience and context

Imagine you are the narrator of the events in Passage A. When you return home you are interviewed by a local radio station about your experiences on the journey to help your friend.

Write the words of the interview.

In your interview you are asked the following three questions only:

• What was particularly difficult about your journey through the mountains?
• Can you explain how the car crash happened?
• What did you do to help your friend?

Base your ideas on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your answer with the first question: Interviewer: What was particularly difficult...

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

General notes

The most successful responses are likely to develop ideas from the passage about the dangers involved and the narrator’s feelings about his situation. There may be some sense of the excitement of driving along this difficult route with reference to the terrain and the weather conditions. There should be some explanation of the sequence of events in the crash and more successful responses may develop comment on the narrator’s sense of being under pressure and of making errors. There should also be a sensible and convincing attempt to explain the reasons for the journey and the friend’s fearful state. Less successful responses are likely to lift sections of the original and do little more than repeat points that are already there without going beyond the more obvious details.

Look for and credit an attempt to write in an appropriate register.

Note 1: It is unlikely that a response that does not address the third bullet (either implicitly or explicitly) will achieve higher than Band 3 for Reading.

Note 2: It is not a requirement for responses to include the opening sentence provided which is given as a steer for candidates.

Table A READING: Using and understanding the material

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 3</td>
<td>5–6</td>
<td>Repeats some details from the passage about the dangers involved. Shows some incomplete understanding of the narrator’s feelings. Focuses on the question and on the passage, but uses material simply and partially.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 4</td>
<td>3–4</td>
<td>There is some relevance to the question with a tendency to retell the original rather than to develop details. Makes simple references to dangers of the journey and the narrator’s feelings.</td>
