This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners’ meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2016 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.
Note 1: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates’ scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Note 2: Words underlined in the answers to the questions are required for the full mark(s) to be awarded.

1. This question tests Reading Objectives R1–R4 (20 marks):

(ii) Explain how the writer conveys the narrator’s feelings about the situation he is in through the use of language in each phrase.

You should refer to the whole phrase in your answer and not just the words in italics. [6]

Award 2 marks for an explanation of each phrase which shows clear appreciation of the effect of the writer’s use of language.

Paraphrase of chosen phrase = 0 for explanation. Explanation must also be predominantly in candidate’s own words.

[Total: 20]
Imagine you are the narrator of Passage A. Eventually, you are offered accommodation for the night by the old man and the following morning you write an entry in your journal.

Write your journal entry.

In the journal entry you should comment on:

- the situation you found yourself in before you met the old man.
- your reaction to the old man and how he treated you when you first met him.
- what happened at the old man’s house.

Base your ideas on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your journal: ‘Last night I had a very strange experience...’

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

General notes

The most successful responses are likely to give an accurate portrayal of the narrator’s predicament and feelings about it. They will make inferences about the possible threats to the narrator from the old man’s unfriendly greeting. There will be a sensible and convincing attempt to explain why the old man behaves in such a fashion and to develop the idea of a possible threat. There should also be a credible account of what happens next. Less successful responses are likely to lift sections of the original and do little more than repeat points that are already there without going beyond the more obvious details.

Note 1: It is unlikely that a response that does not address the third bullet (either explicitly or implicitly) will achieve higher than Band 3 for Reading.

Note 2: It is not a requirement for responses to include the opening sentence provided which is given as a steer for candidates. Look for and credit an attempt to write in an appropriate register and to use the correct genre.
Marking criteria for Question 2

Table A, READING: Using and understanding the material

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band</th>
<th>Mark Range</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Band 1</td>
<td>9–10</td>
<td>Uses and develops several ideas, both factual and inferential, from the passage. Consistently reflects the feelings of the writer and understands the potential threat to the narrator. Shows awareness of the old man’s character and uses this to develop ideas about how the offer of accommodation may be a further threat.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 2</td>
<td>7–8</td>
<td>Refers to several details from the passage and makes some reference to the threatening situation and the narrator’s concerns. Shows some awareness of the old man’s character and attempts to offer a development of the situation at his house.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 3</td>
<td>5–6</td>
<td>Repeats some details from the passage about the situation the narrator is in. Shows some incomplete understanding of the old man’s character. Focuses on the question and on the passage, but uses material simply and partially.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 4</td>
<td>3–4</td>
<td>There is some relevance to the question with a tendency to retell the original rather than to develop ideas. Makes simple references to the old man and how the offer of accommodation might be a source of problems.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 5</td>
<td>1–2</td>
<td>There is an attempt to use the passage. May retell the passage or give occasional relevant facts. There may be examples of misunderstanding or lack of clarity.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 6</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passage.</td>
</tr>

Table B, WRITING: Structure and order, style of language:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band</th>
<th>Mark</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Band 1</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>Sentences are fluent and there is a fairly wide range of vocabulary. Overall structure is good and sentences generally follow in sequence. An appropriate register is established.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 2</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>Sentences are correct, though relatively simple. Vocabulary is adequate and correctly used. Structure is generally sound. Some of the register is appropriate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 3</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>Sentence structures and vocabulary are simple, but meaning is never in doubt. The order is reasonable. There may be an attempt at an appropriate register but it is inconsistent.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 4</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>The response is very simply written and there are occasional examples of blurred meaning. The structure can usually be followed. The response may be over-dependent on lifted material.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>The response is difficult to understand. The response may be almost entirely lifted from the original.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Band 6</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>The response cannot be understood.</td>
